Parent/Teacher conferences are held October 14th – 16th. Our conferences provide an opportunity for teachers and parents to reflect on our partnership in cultivating the intellectual virtues in our children. Conferences are not intended to focus on human excellence in terms of “delivering results” or merely academic performance. To do so would reduce human excellence to mere checklists and skills to be mastered.

Students do not attend conferences. However, I encourage you to share your conference experience with your child. Have a conversation, ask questions, praise the success, and acknowledge the opportunity for growth. The conference can serve as a cornerstone for setting a new goal, striving for a greater intellectual or moral virtue, identifying which virtue could be an area of focus, or even establishing a fresh perspective on school for the remainder of the year.

Please follow the link provided here to be redirected to schedule your child's conference.

If you would like to meet with your child’s Special Area teacher such as P.E., Music, Art, or Foreign Language, please reach out to them directly to schedule a meeting. You can find their email address on the school website under Faculty & Staff.

Great Hearts, Great Books Day

Has your child ever read a story and wanted to become their favorite character? Their day is finally here! On Thursday, October 17th Archway Veritas will host its fourth annual Great Hearts, Great Books Day.

Great Hearts, Great Books Day is a day of storytelling for faculty, staff, and students while dressed up as their favorite literary character or historical figure. Faculty, staff, and students can dress up as one of the many ACV literature book characters or a historical figure studied here at ACV, or they may remain in their student uniform if preferred. Students should know who they are dressed up as and be able to share the reason they chose the specific book character or historical figure.

Click here for a complete list of literature books read through the years at ACV. Your child may also dress up as a historical figure they have studied with their classmates.

Please see below for some examples of costumes:

Please remember to maintain modesty when choosing a costume. Length of costume must reach tip of fingertips of the student's index finger along the thigh while standing or mid-thigh – whichever is longer. All undergarments must be covered, and the costumes should have sleeves that cover the shoulders.

No modern political figures | No pop culture | No weapons | No over-sized props

Student who arrive in costumes that do not meet the above guidelines will be asked to call home
